

Fourth Day

February 2009

FROM THE LAY DIRECTOR

Emphasizing your Spirit

Galatians 5:22&23 By contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against such things.

In previous verses, Paul has talked about the “works of the flesh”. Here he is talking about the “fruit of the Spirit”. After many years of “working”, I am now blessed with a job that emphasizes my passion. I work with people that are as equally passionate about their job, too. Now that my spirit is in my job, I look forward to going in every day and making a positive difference in someone’s life. Which one or several of Paul’s “fruit of the Spirit” moves you? How can you take that and make a difference in your home, church or community?

We, the Trusted Servants of the Round Rock Community, look forward to seeing you at the next Gathering, February 26th, at First UMC, if not sooner!

De Colores,
Gordon Leeks

AGAPE...AGAPE...AGAPE...

AGAPE PROJECT - Ziploc (Gallon) Bag for Agape, with label:

On the label write:

“The faith and love that spring from the hope that is stored up for you in heaven and that you have already heard about in the word of truth, the gospel that has come to you. Colossians 1:5

Providing you a place to store up the love shown you through items of agape.”

Our mouths were filled with laughter, our tongues with songs of joy.
Then it was said among the nations,
"The LORD has done great things for them."
