

Fourth Day

July 2009

FROM THE LAY DIRECTOR

John 15:12-14

“This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one’s life for one’s friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you.”

These are among the nicest, happiest verses in scripture. In an idyllic world, we would all be happy loving one another. John Lennon wrote about it in his song “All you need is love” Then there was this lady, Mary that interrupted us during our marriage enrichment group meeting on Monday night. She was cleanly dressed. She had a sad story to tell us about her father, who was in the hospital in Austin with a heart problem. She needed $11.95 to get a hotel room for the night. Why our church? Why this class? Several members of the class jumped up to give her money. One gave her a $20 bill and another gave her his beverage money. She thanked us and went on her way. We included Mary and her family in our prayer concerns that night, too. As Lawrence Wood said, “Christ’s commandments are not burdensome. Love is the lightest of responsibilities. The difficulty is when we take up the labor before the love. When we get it right, the work of love is hardly work at all.”

Who are you going to love today?

DeColores,

Gordon Leeks
